 @NorthCavePS

Dear Parents,

This week, it has been great to welcome the children back to school after the half term holiday.

At the start of half term, we were pleased to launch our new website. This remains hosted at the existing address and will continue to be kept up to date with information about the school as well as our weekly newsletter. Alongside this, we have also increased the use of our Twitter account as a means of sharing the work we are doing. We will shortly be contacting parents to renew our existing photo permissions so that we can continue to share images and videos of the many exciting things taking place in school.

During the last academic year, the children in Class 3 and Class 4 took part in a local study supporting the work of West Wolds Slow the Flow. Following this, we took delivery this week of a weather station which will be permanently housed on our site. This has been provided by the University of Hull and will be providing regular updates on things such as rainfall, wind speed, temperature and humidity. This information will shortly be available online and we hope to link to this on our website. The data provided will not only support weather monitoring for the local community but also provide a wealth of information for the children that can be used as part of their geography learning.

Tomorrow, we look forward to welcoming potential new starters and their families on to site for our open day. This will take place between 10am and 1pm so please do encourage anyone with a child due to start school next September to come and see the provision we have to offer.

Next week, we will be commemorating Remembrance Day in school. As part of this, we will once again be selling poppies within the classrooms. For classes 1 and 2, donations should be sent in a named envelope. A wider range of items will be available to purchase directly from the school office at the end of each day.

Yours sincerely,

Richard Winks
