All members of our school express our deepest sympathies for the passing of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II.

Her dedication to the UK, other realms and territories is unparalleled and she was an inspiration and example to so many; we thank her for her service.

Our school and trust will observe the mourning period and continue to support our pupils, families and staff.

Dear Parents,

At the end of last term we opened our new library and we have been delighted about the enthusiasm shown by the children and our school community for this project. Each of the classes have now been allocated a timetabled opportunity to visit the library each week. Whilst there, the children will be encouraged to borrow a book to take home in addition to their reading book. The children may borrow these for an extended period but will have the opportunity to change these once a week on their timetabled day. Details of each class day will be sent next week alongside further information about what the children will be learning this term and class routines for you to be aware of.

During this week, we have been mindful of the period of mourning for Queen Elizabeth II. Where appropriate, the staff have discussed this with the children in an age-appropriate manner. In addition, the children in Classes 3 and 4 watched the historic procession live in which Queen Elizabeth II left Buckingham Palace for the final time. Today, each of the classes have been drawing something that reminds them of the Queen in order that this can be put into a book of condolence that will be kept in school.

We are proud of our relationship with Yorkshire Wolds Teacher Training and we enjoy welcoming those entering the teaching profession to our school. This week, we welcomed Mr Quinn who will be working with Class 4 during this term.

Finally, please can I remind you that in line with guidance, school will be closed on Monday for the funeral of Queen Elizabeth II. School will reopen as normal on Tuesday.

Yours sincerely,

Richard Winks
